

ProDictate Online

Speech recognition that can be used with any healthcare application

ALWAYS - EVERYWHERE - IMMEDIATELY

ProDictate Onlines's service is at your fingertips

Clinical applications today are being designed and built at a breathtaking pace. The adoption of such applications among clinician largely depends on the usability and ease of entering clinically relevant information. Integrating clinical applications with speech recognition technology improves usability and encourages doctors to make more meaningful use of the tools available to them.

Hospital-wide sophisticated speech recognition

- Speech recognition for any medical application
- Network-based speech recognition and related services
Seamless integration of voice recognition with other clinical applications
- Language becomes a natural extension of the user interface, enhancing the user experience for doctors and increasing the efficiency of the data acquisition process
- Speech recognition in real time

Key Features & Components

- Seamless integration within minutes (as opposed to weeks or even months)
- Easy implementation: with cloud-based voice services there is no need to purchase client hardware or to worry about complex upgrades and rollouts.
- Secure encryption during data transmission and safe storage in accordance with the European security and privacy policy
- Faster ROI with no big advance investment
- Increased adoption of your clinical workflow solutions among doctors
- Maximum flexibility with medical reports available on any PC, anywhere, at any time
- Integrated speech recognition in real time 22 recognized languages available

